Description

The club house “2nd Obydenskiy pereulok, 11” is located in the prestigious Khamovniki district, in the “Golden Mile” of Moscow. The building was built in 1910 according to the design of the architect Franz Kognowitsky.

The architecture is eclectic with modern elements; the “fluid” balconies of the fifth floor stand out. 6-storey brick building, a total of 9 apartments from 180 to 282 sq m, served by one elevator.

5 minutes away - Kropotkinskaya metro station, Cathedral of Christ the Savior, Prechistenskaya embankment, Gogolevsky Boulevard. Nearby are schools, kindergartens, museums, restaurants and boutiques. Managed by the HOA “2nd Obydensky-11”. This is a chamber house with history for connoisseurs of unique real estate in the center of Moscow.
